

SHIVAM KHARAL

ASPIRING AI/ML ENGINEER | FRONTEND DEVELOPER | GRAPHIC DESIGNER

Passionate about AI, technology, and innovation, with skills in programming, web development, and digital design. Dedicated to continuous learning and building impactful solutions.

EXPERIENCE

ACADEMIC & LEARNING EXPERIENCE

- I have built a strong foundation in science, technology, and computer fundamentals through consistent self-learning and school education. I actively explore programming concepts and modern technologies like AI and web development, continuously improving my problem-solving and logical thinking skills.

SKILLS & PRACTICAL EXPOSURE

- I have hands-on experience in frontend development, graphic designing, video editing, digital tools, and prompt engineering. I also practice Python programming and small project development, which helps me apply theoretical knowledge into real-world problem-solving tasks.

LEADERSHIP & ACTIVITIES

- I actively participate in extracurricular activities and teamwork-based projects, developing strong communication and leadership skills. I take initiative in learning environments and stay motivated to grow in areas like AI/ML, creativity, and innovation to build impactful solutions in the future.
